

School Health Advisory Council Meeting

Start: Tuesday November 2, 2010: 9:00a.m.

End: Tuesday November 2, 2010: 10:30a.m.

Attendees:

Angelique Crawford

Felice Garza

Charles woods

Gloria Stuart--- (Training)

Ms. Jimenez

Jessica Castillo (student)

New Buisness/Old Buisness

- Funding for SHAC.
An idea brought to the table about Making Flower Pens for Xmas
- Need to check on policy and procedures on human sexuality,
Forms written by staff will be sent out with report cards or progress reports.
- Fitness grams have not been sent out, please send reminders before the month is over.

School Surveys

- Surveys will be presented to the student once parent permission slips come back to the where they will be released to the cafeteria where a AIDS foundation speaker will come in to speak and surveys will be given. That speaker is set up for December month.

Breakfast

- Send One-call now for Breakfast encouraging how important it is to have Each student eat breakfast and letting parents know its free for all students.
Mondays& Tuesdays will be appropriate days.
- Mrs. Stuart will also inform all new enrollments about free breakfast.
- Mrs. Jimenez will make a banner for Free breakfast Advertisement

Healthy Weight Management

- SHAC represents healthy weight management.
- We will present posters, post cards on heart disease, diabetes & high blood pressure show how weight affects us in all aspects
ACTION ITEM: SHAC Improvements need follow up.

Review and Follow-up

- Check on Skits and the status for each skit.
- Interested people contacted (6-8 student) for each skit.
- Ms. Crawford will revise the bullying survey for December.
- There will be an on-line survey with 12 questions for the parents to read and take on cyberbullying and bullying.
- Check on grants to increase breakfast program.
- A parent to be involved in our SHAC team.

Fundraisers include:

- A bake sale in the works for the morning or after school.
- Hot Cocoa sale for December.
- A Roasted Corn Day sale for Tuesday's and Thursday's—still pending.

MEETING ADJOURNED; 10:30 a.m.

By: FELICE GARZA

